Senator Donald F. Humason, Jr. BIO 2nd Hampden & Hampshire District

Don Humason is proud to represent the 11 communities of Agawam, Southwick, Granville, Tolland, Russell, Montgomery, Westfield, Southampton, Easthampton, Chicopee (7, 8A, 9A), and Holyoke in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Senator Humason was first elected to the Senate in November 2013 in a Special Election to succeed Senator Mike Knapik. He was re-elected on November 2014 by a margin of 57% – 43% to a full two-year term.

Don was appointed Senate Minority Whip and is a member of the powerful Senate Ways and Means Committee. He also serves on the Committees on Bonding, Capital Expenditures, and State Assets; Intergovernmental Affairs; Children, Families, and Persons with Disabilities; Education; Public Service; and Veterans and Federal Affairs.

He is Chair of the Legislature’s Aviation Caucus, and a member of several other caucuses including the Library Caucus, Parks Caucus, Public Higher Education Caucus, and Gateway Cities Caucus.

Don was first elected to the Massachusetts House of Representatives in November 2002 and represented the city of Westfield for 5 terms before being elected to the Senate. Prior to that he served as the Director of Legislative Affairs of the Executive Office of Health & Human Services in Boston from April 1999-August 2002.

From 1994-1999 he was the Chief of Staff to Westfield State Senator Mike Knapik. He served as the Legislative Aide to Representative Mike Knapik from 1991-1994. Before that, Don was a Trial Court Security Officer at Westfield District Court and a Respite Counselor at the Crisis and Transitional Respite of Westfield Area Mental Health.

Don is a 1989 graduate of Westfield State College and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice, with minors in Spanish and psychology.

Don is married to Janice Tracey Humason and they have a beautiful little boy named Quinn.

Senator Humason maintains a District Office for the convenience of his constituents at 64 Noble Street, Westfield. His website is DonHumason.org.

Based upon Senator Humason’s experience he will provide insight into the Growth in Business for Massachusetts.
